

Binns, Sunderland

Binns cannot be thrown away

A row of derelict 18th century Grade II listed buildings in Sunderland's Hight St West is one of the Trust's most important ongoing projects. Not least because one of them, no 173, laid the foundation for the Binns shopping Empire, housing George Binns' original haberdashery store in 1811.

While the Binns retail empire became subsumed by House of Fraser, this important monument survives and we are in talks with an innovative end user whom we hope to partner in the restoration process.

Projected Cost: £2 million

Funders: TBC

If you would like to be kept up to date with this, or any one of our projects, why not become a member of the Trust? It only costs £24 per year and members enjoy a host of benefits including a newsletter, talks, tours and opportunities to be hands on with projects.
